

HARRY CARMAN

Australian singer-songwriter and musician, Harry Carman exhibits the best of a storyteller through considered lyrics and soulful vocals. Expressing universal stories, Harry Carman composes raw and intimate portraits of life and love, spanning indie-rock, folk, and ballads to capture the heart and mind of every listener.

Taking inspiration from masters of narrative, Noah Kahn and Zach Bryan, Harry Carman forged his musical journey with the release of his debut EP 'Paths' in 2017, featuring stand-out single 'Love Is Love' which garnered support from audiences and industry alike, on Spotify's viral 50 playlist. Harry quickly followed up with sophomore EP 'A State Of Sedation' in 2018 in collaboration with esteemed Australian-Japanese producer Taka Perry.

With a mic, a guitar, an arm full of tattoos, and an ignited artistic fire, 2024 will see Harry Carman release new music with an elevated understanding of himself and his project; taking to the road to showcase everything so far – with so much more to come!
